A SCHEME TO KILL LOUBET

BE DONE WHEN HE VISITED LYONS

An Electrician Stole 2,000 Francs to Use in Carrying Out His Purpose, Which Was to Assassinate the President When He Went to Lyons.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Lyons, Oct. 27.—Novelist DeLyon says a plot to assassinate President Loubet has been discovered.

It appears that a working electrician named Gouthier, entered an electric company's premises at Himes, and stealing 2,000 francs, was tracked to Orange, where he was arrested. Documents found on his person revealed the fact that there was a conspiracy to assassinate President Loubet on his coming to Lyons to unveil a monument to the memory of dead President Carnot.

Gouthier, it is said, committed the burglary in order to obtain funds to carry out the project. He has confessed to the police, who are now tracking his accomplices and watching anarchists in order to prevent any attempt to carry out the scheme.

Forgers Under Bond.

By Wire to The Telegram.

New York, Oct. 27.—Magistrate Brann this morning announced his decision in the case of Patrick and Jones. He holds them in ten thousand dollars bail on a charge of forging the name of Rice, the dead millionaire.

Gets a Suit of Clothes.

Mr. J. G. Smith, of Guilford, who won the ten dollar suit of clothes offered by Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees for the largest collection of farm products exhibited at the Central Carolina Fair, came in this morning with an order from Capt. J. H. Walsh for the suit. Mr. Rees quickly fitted him in a handsome suit, which he wore away.

A TRAGEDY OF THE CIVIL WAR.

A Southern Bride Killed by a Cannon Ball While the Marriage Ceremony Was Going on.

Recalling the historic incident clustering about South Carolina's Executive Mansion, Mrs. Thaddene Horton writes in the October Ladies' Home Journal of the shocking tragedy that occurred there toward the close of the war. This was the death of the daughter of Governor Pickens immediately after her marriage to Lieutenant Le Rochelle. "On the afternoon preceding the events of the marriage the Northern Army began shelling Columbia, but the preparations for the wedding continued. Finally the guests were all assembled and the clergyman was proceeding with the solemn ceremony, and had just joined the right hands of the happy pair, when suddenly there was an awful crash, and a ball from the enemy's cannon penetrated the mansion and burst in the middle of the marriage chamber, scattering its death-dealing missiles in every direction. There were screams and a heartrending groan; mirrors crashed, the house shook, women fainted, and the walls rocked to and fro.

"When the first confusion was over it was discovered that only one person was injured, and that was the bride herself. She lay partly on the floor and partly in her lover's arms, crushed and bleeding, pale but very beautiful, her bridal gown drenched with warm blood, and a great cut in her breast. Laying her on a lounge, the frantic bridegroom besought her by every term of tenderness and endearment to allow the ceremony to proceed, to which she weakly gave her consent, and lying like a crushed flower, no less white than the camelias of her bridal bouquet, her breath coming ing in short gasps, and the blood flowing from this great angry wound, she murmured 'yes' to the clergyman, and received her husband's first kiss. A moment more and all was over.

"She was laid to rest under the magnolias, and the heartbroken bridegroom, reckless with despair, returned to his regiment."

Afro-American Progress.

Two thousand two hundred and fourteen negroes, including 235 women, have taken degrees from institutions of every sort. All have been self-supporting, and letters from half of them report an average assessed valuation of real estate of $3,500.

Beginning November 1st, a number of important changes will be made among the officials and divisions of the Southern Railway, the official announcement being made today.

Mr. W. H. Green has been appointed assistant to Mr. Frank S. Gannon, third vice-president and general manager. His office will be in Washington, his present headquarters.

Mr. Thomas Bernard, of this city, superintendent of tracks and bridges, is appointed engineer of maintenance of way, with headquarters at Chattanooga, Tenn.

The offices of general superintendent of maintenance, assistant general superintendent of maintenance, a sistant general superintendent, and superintendent of track, bridges and buildings are abolished.

The system will be operated in two districts—the eastern district, with headquarters at Salisbury, and the western district, with headquarters at Chattanooga.

The line between Mooresville and Winston-Salem, with the Norwood and Taylorsville branches, becomes a part of the Asheville division.

This division remains as it is at present, except the name is changed from the Norfolk to the Danville division: Monroe, Va., to Spencer, N. C.; Greensboro to Goldsboro; Mt. Airy to Sanford; Rocky Mount, Chapel Hill, Wilkesboro, Asheboro, Ramseur and Madison branches, and Danville yard.

A TRIP TO TRAMPTOWN.

Played by Nat Reiss' Company Last Night to a Packed House.

One of the best all-round companies that has played to a Greensboro audience for a long time held down the boards at the Academy of Music last night. The performance was clean throughout, the situations strong, and the climaxes thrilling, the audience at one time being so much moved as to interrupt the play by showing their disapproval of the villain in shouts of "kill him! kill him!" Mr. Nat Reiss, as the tramp, was irresistibly funny, and kept the audience in a roar of laughter.

The specialties were all good, the juggler performing some very neat tricks, and Herman, the trick bicycle rider, was as much at home on a wheel as on the floor.

A duet on saxophones, with orchestral accompaniment, was also very good, while Dolly Thebold, as a barmaid, brought down the house.

Chrysanthemum Show Premiums.

The ladies of West Market street Church Aid Society desire to call attention to the prize list of their Chrysanthemum show, which will be held early in November.

Further notice as to exact time and place will be given from time to time in the town papers. Prize lists may be obtained by calling at the store of Messrs. Johnson & Dorsett.

A revival meeting will be commenced in the Friends church at Guilford College tomorrow. Rev. Mr. Chilson, of Cleveland, Ohio, will do the preaching. The singing will be in charge of Mr. C. Lee.

PROSPECTS BRIGHTEN.

Monday Work Will be Resumed in Many Pennsylvania Coal Mines.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Hazleton, Oct. 27.—All the mines in the Lehigh Valley, except a few, are still holding out. This morning they were making active preparations for resuming operations Monday. Mules, taken out when the mines were closed, were lowered down again at many collieries, and coal stacked up near the boiler houses for the engines and boilers was inspected.

The collieries of the Markle Company, the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company and the Cross Creek Coal Company have not yet posted notices agreeing to raise wages. The two latter will probably grant the advance Monday.

THE OUTLOOK FAVORABLE.

Wilkesbarre, Oct. 27.—Most of the coal companies which had not offered an increase did so this morning. The outlook is that all the collieries in this region will resume work Monday morning.

IN MEMORIAM.

The Lovely Christian Character of Miss Josephine Fulford—Resolutions.

In Greene Hill cemetery, on the evening of October 17th, the body of Miss Josephine Fulford, was tenderly laid to rest by the many friends her true worth had made, in household, in neighborhood and churchmembership. From the church of her warmest affection, and the services she so appreciated, it was lovingly borne. Exquisite floral tributes from each of the charitable societies she had so long and faithfully served, and from the friends she loved so well, covered the casket and newly made grave.

Spiritually minded, lovely, modest, loyal, unselfish, faithful to every trust—it can be truly said of her, "greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends;" for she did it literally.

Among homes in the Eastern part of the State her early life's association, she went as it proved, but to say a fond good-bye, returning to those who needed her only in time to breathe her last on earth, amid the surroundings she had chosen for her devotion.

May we who offer this tribute of our affectionate esteem, catch her inspiration in working for the Master!

At a called meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary and Aid Society of Saint Barnabas Parish it was resolved,

That inasmuch as it has pleased Our Heavenly Father to remove to higher service than that of earth our Secretary and Treasurer, Miss Josephine Fulford, we, who deplore the loss her absence can hardly fill, would express the grief each individual member sustains in her being parted from us.

That we would also tender our sympathy toward her bereaved sister and household, have a copy of these resolutions and poverbs sent them, see that they be enrolled on our books and copied in the daily papers.

TWO RECEPTIONS.

The receptions tendered students of the State Normal and Industrial College, at the First Presbyterian and Washington Street Baptist churches last night, were very enjoyable affairs.

About seventy-five students and many members of the congregation gathered at the First Presbyterian church and enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. In addition to the other social features, there was some splendid vocal and instrumental music. Mrs. R. G. Vaughn and Mrs. Will Allen sang a duet, Dr. J. S. Betts sang a solo, and Miss Pearl Lee rendered a violin solo. Light refreshments were served.

The Sunday school room at the Baptist church was filled by young ladies from the college and the young people of the congregation. Everything passed off most pleasantly, the time being taken up with social conversation, music, etc. The visitors were cordially welcomed and made to feel at home.

A NEGRO DEMOCRATIC CLUB.

NEWBERNE HAS THIS GREAT FREAK

Senator Pritchard Will be the First Republican to Speak in Wilmington Since the Revolution of '98—The Happy Condition in Which North Carolina Finds Itself as a Result of 10 Cent Cotton.

Special Correspondence of The Telegram.

Raleigh, Oct. 26.—The Agricultural and Mechanical College foot ball team here was outclassed yesterday by the Blacksburg eleven. The latter won by a score of 18 to 2.

Later on there will be a great foot ball game here next month between the teams of the Universities of Georgia and North Carolina. It will probably be played on the new grounds of the Agricultural and Mechanical College. The new grounds will before a great while be notably good. On them the baseball games of the season of 1901 are to be played. In April and May there will be college ball and in June and July State league games. This is a "ball town," and will have another fine team next season.

A lot of Raleigh people will attend the Winston fair.

Secretary Pearsall of the State Democratic committee says he does not believe the new registration will amount to one per cent.

Yesterday was "Educational Day" at the State fair. The colleges and schools here gave a holiday. There were many representatives of the University, Trinity and Wake Forest colleges, besides many schools, academies, etc. Buies Creek Academy, 310 students, came in on a special train on the Cape Fear and Northern railway, and headed by Prof. Campbell, the superintendent, the students male and female, marched up town, making a fine appearance. All sorts of college "colors" were seen and there were ribbons galore. Some of the schools are now wearing buttons.

Thursday of the fair was simply simply great. Mr. Leard of the Seaboard Air Line, made a report that the train to the grounds handled 11,000 people. The street railway handled as many. Many went in carriages, and of course many walked. One of the pleasing sights was the great number of country people who drove in, with nice teams, and with happy people sitting in them. It all showed prosperity and happiness. Great indeed is the power of 10 cent cotton. "It almost seems that the old saying was true, and that 'cotton is king,'" said an observer of these joyful country folks. The fact is, as Gen. Cox remarked to me last night, that the people who farm will start 1901 owing less than at any time in the past 15 years. That means a vast deal to North Carolina. Yesterday's attendance at the fair was far larger than ever before on a Friday. Never was there so much amusement, and the people lingered until the last moment.

The officials of the Federal court have returned from the Newberne court. One man, a negro, Henry Artis, was convicted there of forging a pension check and was given four years in the Nashville penitentiary. This fellow has served two years in the State penitentiary for forging a school order.

The exact number of visitors to the State museum Thursday was 3,758. During the week it is over 10,000.

Yancey county is right to the front at the fair. It actually took the first premium on sweet potatoes. Where is middle and eastern North Carolina? It beat both sections. Yancey also took first premium on apples, cabbages and dried fruit and on Burley tobacco.

There have been no accidents or fights at the fair or in Raleigh and no arrests worthy of mention, remarkably little work by pickpockets and but little gambling. The excellent order is highly creditable to visitors and Raleigh people alike.

Newberne is up-to-date. It has a colored Bryan, Stevenson and Thomas club, composed of some of the leading negroes in the town.

There will be a great crowd of people at Smithfield next Monday, when the 51 Democrats indicted on the charge of intimidating and assaulting G. T. Massey, a Populist nominee for the legislature, last July, will be tried. The trial is of great interest, as among the accused are three ex-members of the legislature, one member and a passed grand master of Masons.

Senator Pritchard will speak at Wilmington next week. He will be the first man of his party to speak there since the "revolution" of November 1898.

is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price it now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

"LEST WE FORGET."

Mr. Simmons Conceived the Plan of Battle and Led the Fight That Gave Us Political Freedom.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

Only a few short weeks have elasped since the fight for white supremacy and against negro domination was brought to a victorious termination through the magnificient political generalship of the chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, Mr. F. M. Simmons. It is needless to go over how the battle was fought, and how it was won, how Simmons' name became a household word throughout the length and breadth of the State, how the hopes that were centered in him were realized. It is a story too well known, too vividly impressed by its vital importance to be so soon forgotten.

Yet, as Mr. Simmons stands today a candidate for the United States Senatorship, asking at the hands of the people of his State this recognition of his services, there are some who seem to forget. Old soldiers, too, who fought under the leadership of Jackson and Lee, that know that a brevet for gallantry was only won facing the foe on the field of battle, and who would have felt resentful and discouraged if their colonel or captain who had led them in a gallant charge that had taken the position of the enemy when promotion came, had been set aside and the honors and reward given to another.

Simmons has led the fight, his brain conceived the plan of battle that has gained the victory and placed North Carolina once more in the Democratic column as no longer doubtful; freed the east from humiliation and degradation; made Marion Butler and Fusion legislatures things of the past; given us the Senatorship. Should we forget?

To the Editor of the Telegram:

It is simply disgraceful that Democrats, the friends of Gen. Julian S. Carr and Mr. F. M. Simmons, should in their zeal and advocacy of either of these gentlemen for the United State Senate, stoop so low as to indulge in misrepresentation or insinuations calculated and intended to injure the fair fame and honorable record these gentlemen have made for themselves and the great honor to the State of North Carolina which either one of them would certainly do her in that high office. No good can come of it in this election, but great harm may result in the future. It creates among brethren dissatisfaction and serves to disunite, when we should stand together as firm as Gibraltar in all time to come. Stop it, gentlemen, play fair on the ground of truth and light.

HIS LIFE WAS SAVED.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvellous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug

DRAW THE LINE ON GAMBLERS.

Referring to its coming fair, the Winston Sentinel says: "A warning—see that no license is given swindlers and vulgar shows next week."

It is a common saying that a fair cannot be conducted successfully in North Carolina without the large troop of fakirs which usually attend them. This may be true. We have no objections to them. If the charge is announced at the door and a man is asked to pay a specific price to see a two-headed negro, a snake eater, or any kindred attraction, it is all right. He pays his money and sees what he sees.

But this way the fairs have of admitting gambling schemes, which profess to be nothing else and thrive only on the ignorance of a certain class of people who attend the fairs, should be stopped. Wheels-of-fortune and greasy pigs have no right place in fairs promoted and patronized by honest, decent people. At any of these games may be seen the combined machinations of half a dozen confederates for the purpose of robbing some poor, ignorant and often druken, fellow of the few hard earned dollars which his poor wife is begging him to spend for his children's winter shoes. And the worst part of it is that this robbery is licensed, permitted, and encouraged by the fair management, not a member of which would himself do a wrong thing. Why is it? It is no answer or excuse to say that the loser goes into it voluntarily, and attempts to get the best of the game, because the game is always so arranged that the sum total of the gambler's earnings are a large increase over his losings, all of which he has cheated the crowd out of. And he was licensed to do this very thing. He knew he would play a winning game, and paid for the privilege.

The Washington Post of Thursday referred in extravagant terms to a speech made by Secretary of War Root on the previous night at Canton, O., saying that he "has no need to resort to epithet and imprecation, for he knows whereof he speaks, and he is inaccessible to the petty provocation of wounded vanity at having been convicted of ignorance and error." This is, it says, because "Mr. Root is a man of extraordinary ability and profound acquirement" and "the subjects he discusses he thoroughly understands." Mr. Root may or may not be such a man as The Post says he is. We have never had the opportunity of judging, and shall not take The Post's word for it merely. The common opinion is that The Post, excellent and fair as it always attempts to be, dwells in so high an atmosphere of independence that its dictum on men and measures is final. Both sides quote it, with laudation or abuse as it happens to speak for or against them. It is a fact, however, that The Post's judgment, especially of men, is swayed by its likes and dislikes as other papers, though we do not doubt its intention of being fair and square all the time. But when it lauds Mr. Root, we recollect that it lauded the Honorable Webster Davis in quite as extravagant terms, and as a potato this gentleman has never gotten beyond the size which the growers of that useful edible call "strings."

Mrs. Newrich was giving a dinner party. "The cream is simply delicious," said a guest. "Well, it ought to be," replied Mrs. Newrich; "I'm sure we patronize the very best crematory."

The people of Mississippi are to be commiserated this morning over the news that their representative in the Senate is the subject of a scandal. The Senator says it is a case of blackmail and an attempt to besmirch his character. That's what all the gay old ducks say when they are caught. The commen sense proposition is, though, that nobody was ever anxious enough to besmirch the character of a statesman who was above reproach by such a scheme. We never like to pass judgment on a man too soon, but we shall take the liberty of prophesying that Senator Sullivan will go the way of his kind.

The two-weeks-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Coon is a fine little personage and is far ahead of most babies for its age. The child had been fretful and would not be pacified, and all efforts to quiet the little one proved of no avail until the Rev. Mr. McGhee, who was making a pastoral visit, discovered that the child had a full set of upper teeth. This is a very uncommon occurrence. The child is otherwise healthy.—Mooresville Enterprise.

We congratulate the Rev. Mr. McGhee on turning his pastotal visits towards such useful ends. Brother McGhee is not a hearer only, but a doer.

In his speech here Friday night Congressman Kitchin paid a compliment to Cleveland and we were surprised to hear the crowd greet his remarks with applause.—Durham Herald.

While we do not think this should especially be imputed unto him for righteousness, we do hope that it will not be charged against the Congressman as a sin.

To Brother Pearson, of the Morganton Herald, who from injuries received from a fall has been compelled to give up his canvass as the Democratic elector in the Eighth District, we extend our sympathy.

Unless the exigency of the situation causes our weekly contemporaries to move up their publication day a notch or two, they will have but one more whack at the senatorial question.

FOLLOWED EXAMPLE OF JACKSON

Why Capt. Pirie Went Into Africa to Fight—Jackson and the Hall of Fame.

Richmond Times.

Nay, more. The American people and the civilized world have heard the reverberant echoes of the fame of Stonewall Jackson. If marvelous military skill, if the unapproachable strategy and tactics of the Valley campaign, if the admiration and emulation of the leading generals and military critics and teachers, and an undying control over the imagination and hearts of thousands of men throughout the world, civil, military and religious, be fame, then Stonewall Jackson is famous, and the Temple of Fame can neither add to nor detract from the glory of that leader's name by withholding or inscribing his name on its walls.

We must have had this forcibly impressed upon us by the account in the Evening Express, of Aberdeen, Scotland, October 9th, 1900, of the meeting at which Capt. Pirie was formerly notified of his election as the Liberal member to Parliament from Aberdeen. Capt. Pirie had been bitterly opposed to the Boer war, which he regarded as an iniquitous attack on the liberties of a free people but when his country needed him he went to South Africa and fought for his flag. In the course of his speech he said:

"In the great American war there was a great Southern general—Stonewall Jackson—(applause) who strongly disapproved slavery, but who felt the call of his right to defend his country and maintain the rights of his State to be stronger than his own personal convictions, and he fought in battle to uphold the system of slavery, of which he himself so strongly disapproved. The precedent was enough for me, and I was perfectly content to allow my conduct to be guided by the conduct of so distinguished a man as Stonewall Jackson" (Applause).

The man whose practical demonstration of how to wage war is taught at the highest English military school during the last session, as the best example of modern warfare known; the man whose personality can sway the actions of other soldiers and citizens for patriotism and right forty years after his death; the man whose genius found such an overmastering expression in actual results as did Stonewall Jackson's may not be famous as was Caesar or Alexander, Aristotle or Plato, Charlemange or Michael Angelo?

Fame is, after all, only the recognition by the living of the genius of the dead. It is the tribute of the present to the leaders of the past.

"Those men who fought and loved and sailed and ruled and made our world."

But if fame be based on pre-eminence in some great calling, and if achievements be recognized by the whole world, Stonewall Jackson, the American, is more famous than Gilbert Stuart or Asa Gray. But then, Fame is not to be caught and shut up in any building, not even in the temple built for it in New York.

IMPORTANT!

Greensboro, N. C., Sept. 26th, 1900.

TO OUR CUSTOMERS:

On and after October 15th, 1900, we, the undersigned, will do a strictly cash business. Our reasons are as follows:

1st. Absolute NECESSITY.

2nd. Laundry, the world over, is a recognized cash business and justly so.

3rd. Our accounts are necessarily small, and it causes an endless amount of confusion and expense to collect, besides losses each year in bad bills.

4th. All of our current expenses, such as labor, fuel, gas and supplies are cash, hence the stand we take is forced upon us. While we very much regret, in most cases, to exact the spot cash, yet we must treat all alike, and we see no other way out of the difficulty. We trust our customers will lend us their aid by stating when to return laundry and by being prepared to pay for same when delivered. Our drivers will have positive instructions to return to the laundry all packages not paid for.

We have on sale at office (for cash) coupon books from $1 to $5 which can be left at convenient place at home, so that on delivery of bundle the amount of laundry bill can be torn out by the driver.

A Woman Claims That He Had Promised Repeatedly to Marry Her and Then Refused to Do So, and She Now Brings Suit for $50,000.

Washington, Oct. 26.—A suit for $50,000 damages for breach of promise against United States Senator Wm. V. Sullivan, of Mississippi, was filed in the District of Columbia Supreme Court this afternoon, by Mai Lucy Leeton of Oxford, Miss. The plaintiff, in her affidavit, alleges that she, "an unmarried woman, at the request of the defendant undertook and promised to marry him, and the defendant undertook and promised to marry the plaintiff, which he, without cause or right, refused to do."

The plaintiff claims that she met Senator Sullivan about October 7, 1895, in his law office, at Oxford, he being employed to defend her brother-in-law. She claims that he made protestations of affection for her "and began by wiles and artifices to induce the plaintiff to accompany him on a journey to Chattanooga, Tenn." Plaintiff claims she refused to go with him, but allowed him to correspond with her. She was at that time married, but not living with her husband. Plaintiff claims that Senator Sullivan promised to procure a divorce for her, "and that he would keep her forever with him and that she should occupy as high a position as any lady in the land." About December 1, 1895, the plaintiff, at the request of the defendant, went with him to New Orleans. In January, 1898, according to the affidavit filed today, the defendant placed plaintiff in Nelson's Business College, at Memphis, Tenn., paying her tuition and board. In May, 1897, he secured a divorce for her.

The affidavit then alleges that May 10, of that year, the plaintiff and defendant lived together in Alexandria, Va., as Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Sutton. He introduced plaintiff as his wife. Later, he placed her in the Fauquier Female Institute, in Warrenton, Va., as his niece, where she remained from January to June, 1893, the defendant writing her every day and promising her he would marry her in the summer.

During this time, plaintiff claims, she had an offer of marriage from a young man who lived near her home and asked the defendant to break off their relations. The latter, she claims, urged that she should not marry the young man, but wait and marry him in the following summer. The affidavit also recites that the couple lived together in Washington and that the defendant finally notified plaintiff that he was not financially able to marry her. Also that the plaintiff, hearing the defendant was ill, in June, 1900, came to Washington to see him and found him rooming with a woman whom he had brought from Holly Springs, Miss. She claims that the defendant offered her $1,000 to go home and not expose him before said woman. The plaintiff refused to do this and claims that the defendant abused her and left her without money, friends or means to live on.

The court this afternoon issued the usual writ for service on the defendant to show cause within 20 days of service, why judgment should not be had. The writ is in the hands of the marshal for this district for service. Senator Sullivan is out of the city. The case cannot reach a trial for some months in the present condition of the docket.

BLACKMAIL SAYS THE SENATOR.

Oxford, Miss, Oct. 26.—Lucy Leeton, who brought a breach of promise suit against Senator W. V. Sullivan, in Washington, D. C., today, was married fifteen years ago to Thomas Hyde, a carpenter of this county. Shortly after their marriage she and her husband moved to Temple, Texas, remaining there until about four years ago, when Mrs. Hyde returned to Oxford. Hyde sued for divorce in the Chancery Court of this State, in 1896, and obtained the decision.

Senator Sullivan today gave out the following: "This woman has absolutely no claim on me of any kind. While in Washington recently an attempt was made by her and her abettors to extort money from me under threat of a suit, such as she has now brought. I declined to entertain such a proposition. The proof will show that it is an attempt to besmirch my character."

WINE OF CARDUI

A SURE MEDICINE.

HANDSOM, VA., Dec. 31.

I have been suffering from female weakness for four years, and have taken many medicines, but Wine of Cardui and Black-Draught have done more for me than anything else.

MRS. CAROLINE EVANS.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

It is a mistake to take any and every kind of medicine when you are sick. There is danger in it. Most of the so-called cures for "female weakness" do nothing more than deaden the pain temporarily, and when the effect wears away the patient is weaker and sicker than before. It is never wise to take chances. You have only one life, and that is dear and precious. If you have any pain, ache, disorder or weakness in the feminine organs, nothing will help you like Wine of Cardui. It helps do away with morning sickness during the early stages of pregnancy, and modifies the pains of childbirth; recovery is rapid and future health is assured. The Wine is purely vegetable, being made of herbs whose medicinal properties act directly upon the organs of womanhood. It is a long-tried remedy, and has many years of success behind it. It is sure. Why take a chance medicine when you can get a sure medicine?

GOOD ADVICE.

The most miserable things in the world are those suffering from dyspepsia and liver complaint. More than seventy-five per cent of the people in the United States are afflicted with these two diseases and their effects: such as sour stomach, sick headache, habitual costiveness, palpitation of the heart, heart-burn, waterbrash, gnawing and burning pains at the pit of the stomach, yellow skin, coated tongue and disagreeable taste in the mouth, coming up of food after eating, low spirits, etc. Go to your druggist and get a bottle of August Flower for 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you. Try it. Get Green's Prize Almanac.

A GOOD THING.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr. A. Boschee, a celebrated German physician, and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures coughs, colds and all lung troubles of the severest nature, removing, as it does, the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is not an experimental medicine, but has stood the test of years, giving satisfaction in every case, which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868, and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cts. THOSE WHO ENLIST.

Their Reasons for Wanting to Enter Uncle Sam's Service.

Unrequited Love in Many Instances Is the Reason—Trick of an Unfeeling Guardian—Culling Out the Ineligibles.

In one of the smaller cities of Texas is a big man with a small conscience who has accomplished one of his chief objects in life. He has got rid of a small boy whose dying parents consigned him to the big man's care. He did it by sending him to Chicago to enlist in Uncle Sam's navy, though he must have known that the boy could not pass a physical examination. When the boy arrived at the recruiting station in the Masonic temple and related his story to Commander Blockinger, who has charge of it, he was sent to the officers of the Y. M. C. A., and by them was found work and a home in a city in central Illinois, says the Chicago Tribune.

Of the many strange cases that have come into the recruiting station here, that of the boy excited the greatest interest.

He was not more than 15 years old, and had been left by his parents when a small child in the care of a guardian who never liked him. There wasn't much of an estate and the old man was not half the friend to the boy's parents after they died that he had been before. So he hunted for some means to get the youngster off his hands. He found it when he saw a big advertisement calling for recruits and which said apprentices were wanted in the navy.

There is a suggestion attached that the boys must pass a physical examination and had better be examined by their home physicians before they start, so that if they are deficient they may be spared the expense of car fare to Chicago. The big man kept still about that, gave the boy a box of lunch to last him till he got here, put him in a day coach, with a ticket and no money, and went home to have a quiet laugh by himself on his own cleverness. The boy arrived here and was found to be lame, deaf in one ear, and near-sighted, but he told such a pitiful tale that he was well cared for.

Commander Blockinger has many strange cases among the hundreds of young men who enlist. There is something in the evolution of youth that makes him peculiarly tragic in his love affairs when he has about reached the age at which he is eligible for an apprenticeship in the navy. As a result there are many bitter-hearted youngsters who come to be examined and started either on the road to fame or to oblivion—for they are usually divided in opinion between becoming great and disappearing as the best means of making "her" sorry. Not long ago a young man, son of a rich New Yorker, was brought to the local office for enlistment. He had had money all his life and had misused it until he was a moral wreck. The old man decided nothing but naval discipline far at sea would make a man of him, so he came out here where the boy was living, "corralled" him and took him up to the office and bound him over to Uncle Sam. It is safe to say the boy will learn to do without some things during the term of his enlistment.

From 60 to 100 boys pass through the office in the Masonic temple every month on their way from farm or city home to the sea. Of these the greater number are from the city, but out of the total number of applicants from country and city the percentage accepted is larger among those from the farm. These boys are sturdier, and the most of them have taken advantage of the department's notice and have had themselves examined first in their country town before chancing a trip to Chicago. This preliminary examination culls out those who are obviously unfit. As between city and country lads when once enlisted there is said to be little choice. Each is about the best there is.

At army recruiting quarters on West Madison street, on the contrary, there is a demand for city men. The recruiting sergeant declares that the countrymen are not so apt to pass the rigid examinations, and they do not make as good soldiers as the city men, having not as much endurance. Many colored men are being enlisted just now over there, as there is a demand for men to fill the Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth regiments, both of which are in the Philippines with "depot battalions" at Fort Wright and Fort Bliss in this country. The white men who are taken on are sent, if they desire home service, to Fort Wayne to join the Fourteenth regiment, or if they wish to go immediately to the Philippines are sent to Columbus barracks, Ohio, to await the sailing of a transport.

WANTED A JOB AS BOSS.

Youngster Surprised the Proprietor and May Work Up to the Place.

A boy of about 14, with well-worn clothes and a face in which timidity and determination struggled for the mastery, entered the office of a shipping house on Front street one day lately, says the New York Times, approached the desk of him whose appearance spoke the control of the establishment, and, catching his eye, said:

"Do you want a boss, mister?"

"What!" exclaimed the proprietor, surprised out of his self-control.

"I want to know if you want a boss, sir."

"I don't understand you; what do you mean?"

"Well, sir, I've been looking for something to do for three weeks, now, and nobody wants a boy, so to-day I thought I'd see if somebody didn't want a boss. I'd like to be a boss."

"Well, well! That's not bad. Are you willing to work up to the job? It took me 25 years to get it."

"'Deed, I am, sir, if you'll give me the chance!"

To-day an earnest boy in jumper and overalls is struggling with bundles and packing cases in the shipping room of the concern. He intends to be boss of the establishment before his side whiskers (which have not yet sprouted) are as gray as those of the present incumbent.

California's Oranges.

The capital invested in orange growing in the state of California is estimated at $14,000,000. As the bulk of the oranges comes from seven of the southernmost counties of the state—Los Angeles, Riverside, San Bernardino, Orange, San Diego, Santa Barbara and Ventura—some idea may be gained of the vast utility of this work in the United States to Uncle Sam. The number of nonfruit-bearing orange trees in this district is said to be about 1,227,000, and those now yielding fruit 2,072,400. When all these trees are yielding the luscious California oranges, Californians, it is estimated, will reap a harvest of gold from this source alone of $10,000,000 a year.—Chicago Chronicle.

It is estimated that there are 1,000,000 more acres of land employed in raising corn in America this year than was the case last season.—Chicago Chronicle.

CATARRH

Catarrh has become such a common disease that a person entirely free from this disgusting complaint is seldom met with. It is customary to speak of Catarrh as nothing more serious than a bad cold, a simple inflammation of the nose and throat. It is, in fact, a complicated and very dangerous disease; if not at first, it very soon becomes so.

The blood is quickly contaminated by the foul secretions, and the poison through the general circulation is carried to all parts of the system.

Salves, washes and sprays are unsatisfactory and disappointing, because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. S. S. S. does. It cleanses the blood of the poison and eliminates from the system all catarrhal secretions, and thus cures thoroughly and permanently the worst cases.

Mr. P. H. McAllister, of Harrodsburg, Ky., writes: "Having been a terrible sufferer from Catarrh, and being now sound and well, the question often put to me is, 'What cured you?' In answer I feel it my duty to state that Swift's Specific is the medicine. I am such a true believer in the efficacy of Swift's Specific that I can honestly and conscientiously recommend it to any one suffering from Catarrh. Have recommended it to many, and am happy to say that those whom I have induced to use it can bear me out in the statement that it will cure any case of Catarrh if taken according to directions."

SSS is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the greatest of all blood medicines and tonics.

If you have Catarrh don't wait until it becomes deep-seated and chronic, but begin at once the use of S. S. S., and send for our book on blood and skin diseases, and write our physicians about your case.

THE MASCOT TONIGHT.

The Columbia Comic Opera Company will be the attraction at the Academy of Music tonight, where they will present Audran's famous comic opera success The Mascot.

The Columbia Company consists of a strong cast and powerful ensemble, including two exceptionally funny comedians. The costumes are said to be magnificent and a delight to the eye.

"TOWN TOPICS.

One of the strongest farce comedy organizations of the season is the production "Town Topics" which will be the attraction at the Academy of Music, Thursday night, November 1st.

For laughing purposes alone "Town Topics" is well worth seeing. It is interspersed with bright, catchy music, some of which you may have heard before, but it is safe to say never so well sung. The ladies are said to be young, pretty and well gowned, while the men fit to a nicety the characters they portray. You follow the plot without effort, and although you have to stop and laugh every few seconds, you are able to follow the story and thus keep in close sympathy with all the characters to the very end. There is perhaps a certain insufficiency in motive, no convincing reason for the complications of the plot, but is futile for a person to find fault with the exaggeration and grotesqueness of pure farce. "Town Topics" is a successful fun maker, and that is its aim.
